Things are not always what they seem in Hell (which Dora the Demon Explorer found out). This genre is not usually something I willingly read. The series to which this book belongs to was suggested to me by one of my good friends. In case you are wondering which series, it is The Demon Diaries. I am glad I listened. Demonic Dora is the first book.

I haven't read anything by Claire Chilton before, and I can safely say I've never read anything quite like Demonic Dora. Most YA involves a certain level of angst. It's all a bit emo usually - brooding boys, forbidden love, drama and doom. Demonic Dora kind of has those aspects, but it also has an all-important hit of comedy.

A Hint of Magic is the first book in Claire Chilton's Demonic Diaries series. In this short story we are given a glimpse into the life of Dora Carradine, the heroine of Demonic Dora. We are introduced to Dora and her family, and some of how Dora fits into (or doesn't) her community. I have mixed feelings about this book.
