Lust Seven Deadly Sins 1

First of all, Victoria Christopher Murray is the queen of the opening sentence and she brings it again in Lust, the first of the Seven Deadly Sins series. After reading Lust, I am convinced Victoria Christopher Murray is a writer chameleon. I think she could write any genre she chooses, and do it well. A+ for the descriptions, the jargon, the authenticity of the characters. This was Bold writing. As the title suggests, Lust is a gripping, highly sensual read.

The seven deadly sins, also known as the capital vices, or cardinal sins, is a grouping and classification of vices within Christian teachings, although they are not explicitly listed in the Bible. Behaviours or habits are classified under this category if they directly give rise to other immoralities. According to the standard list, they are pride, greed, wrath, envy, lust, gluttony, and sloth, which are contrary to the seven heavenly virtues. These sins are often thought to be abuses or excess

Proverbs 6:16-19 really gives you the seven deadly sins that God hates. April 13, 2006-TJC Note: The list in Proverbs 6:16-19 is not the list of deadly sins. Gregory wanted a list of seven because that number holds significance to Christians, but his list serves a different purpose than that of the list in Proverbs.
