Franklin's greatest business accomplishment came from the publication of Poor Richard's Almanack. On December 19, 1732 Franklin published his first almanac under the pseudonym of Richard Saunders. The almanac was published for the year of 1733 and was published once a year for the next 25 years.

Poor Richard's Almanack - Benjamin Franklin Historical Society

Richard was presented as distinct from Franklin himself, occasionally referring to the latter as his printer. In later editions, the original Richard Saunders character gradually disappeared, replaced by a Poor Richard, who largely stood in for Franklin and his own practical scientific and business perspectives.
