The Finished Work Of Christ

The finished work of Christ refers primarily to His death on the cross. That is where the judgment of God against our sin was endured by Christ, who became our substitute in order to become our Savior. Jesus was not our Savior until He suffered and died for our sins on the cross.

The Finished Work of Christ | Growing Christians Ministries

The finished works of Christ impact every area that touches our lives, in the natural as well as the spiritual. The last words Jesus spoke before dying on the cross apply just as much now as they did then. "So when Jesus had received the sour wine, He said, ' It is finished!' And bowing His head, He gave up His spirit" (John 19:30, NKJV).

The Finished Works of Christ: What They Mean For Us ...

The Finished Work is a doctrine that locates sanctification at the time of conversion, afterward the converted Christian progressively grows in grace. This is contrary to the doctrine of entire sanctification that locates complete sanctification in a definite "second work" of grace which is a necessary prerequisite to receive the baptism in the Holy Spirit. The term finished work arises from the aphorism "It's a Finished Work at Calvary", referring to both salvation and ...

Finished Work - Wikipedia

A person is saved by trusting in the finished work of Christ on the cross, and not by bodily sensations and religious ecstasy. But you will say, "What about feeling? Is there no place in saving faith for feeling?" Certainly, there is room for feeling in saving faith. But we are not saved by it.
